ACCESS CAPITAL ADVISERS APPOINTS NEW HEAD OF OFFICE – UK & EUROPE

Access Capital Advisers (Access) CEO, Alexander Austin, announced today that Associate Director, Stephen Burns, will lead the firm's UK & Europe office which includes the role as Head of the Infrastructure in Europe.

"Stephen has worked with Access since 2003 and has been one of the leading members of the infrastructure team in UK and Europe for the past two years." said Mr Austin.

"His knowledge of the Australian, UK and European markets and infrastructure space provides a unique understanding and perspective for Access and its clients."

Prior to his move to the UK, Stephen worked in Infrastructure Group in Australia and has extensive experience in the acquisition and ongoing management of infrastructure investments in Australia and off-shore.

Stephen is a Chartered Financial Analyst and has a BEc and BComm from Australian National University. His appointment follows the decision of Toby Buscombe to leave Access for a role with the global infrastructure investment team at Mercer.
